Amazing Views

Visiting the most impressive landscapes in the Andes Mountains and experiencing a challenging hike at over 4,300 meters above sea level requires a lot of energy, although of course the experience is well worth the effort. That's why, considering the hikers' rest and comfort, Andean Lodges built the four highest altitude lodges in the world along the Ausangate Route.

Each of the lodges has an extraordinary view toward the different faces of the Apu Ausangate and has been built under ecological guidelines, in harmony with their surroundings and Andean cultural aesthetic values. Here, you can enjoy a series of comforts that include trained local chefs and entertainment.

- 📍 Chillca Lodge: Located on the Pampa Uyuni plain at 4,369m / 14,334ft. From this lodge have the view of snowcapped Mt. Jatun Jampa.
- 📍 Machuraccay Lodge: Located at 4,815m / 15,797ft is the closest to Apu Ausangate.
- 📍 Anantapata Lodge: Located at an altitude of 4,750m / 15,584ft. at the top of the Alcatauri Gorge.
- 📍 Huampococha Lodge: Located at 4,800m / 15,748ft. At the foot of Apu Callecalle, with a panoramic view of Lake Huampococha.
