

Hotel L' Orologio ★★★★★

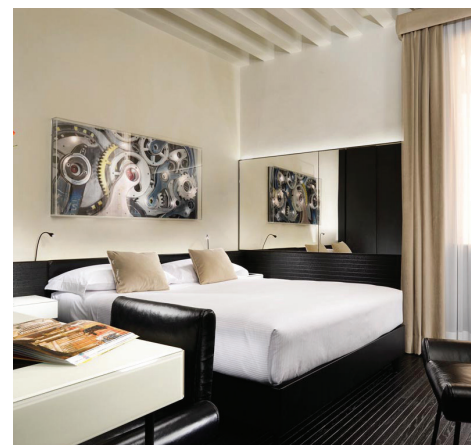

Cristian Orrù and Claudio Delli

Located directly on the Grand Canal, just a few steps from the Rialto Bridge, your clients will be exceptionally well looked after at the Hotel L' Orologio Venice. An intimate boutique 4-star hotel, L' Orologio offers great value in any of their 43 contemporary rooms but especially so for families in either of their two large apartments facing the Grand Canal.

◀ Now in his 5th year at L' Orologio Venice, Cristian has been a big part of this hotel's success. Guest focused, amiable and very helpful, Cristian is the type of manager you will see visible in the breakfast room and in the front of house at all hours of the day. Not one to be showy or bombastic, Cristian exudes quiet confidence, the type of confidence that confides "don't worry, we have it handled." And in Venice, this city state where personal contacts make things go smoothly, Cristian is a person you want to know. Of course Cristian runs an impeccable hotel, of course service is top priority...but personality counts as well and there is where this man adds a special extra. A spritz appearing before you order it, an umbrella being handed to you on the way out, extra flowers to mark a special day, nothing passes Cristian by and that is why we're happy to have him at L' Orologio Venice.

"Wow! The hotel is fabulous. They greeted us like celebrities with an upgrade to a beautiful top floor suite, with a bottle of champagne and lovely welcome letter. The manager said to be sure and tell you that it was all because of their excellent relationship with you and your travel agency! Thanks so much again for the arrangements at this wonderful hotel."
