

La Peschiera ★★★★★

La Peschiera is a wonderfully intimate and private sea-front retreat in Puglia for couples seeking to indulge themselves. Just 10 minutes from Monopoli, facing the clear waters of the Adriatic, the resort provides a sophisticated Apulian culinary experience in one of Italy's most romantic settings.

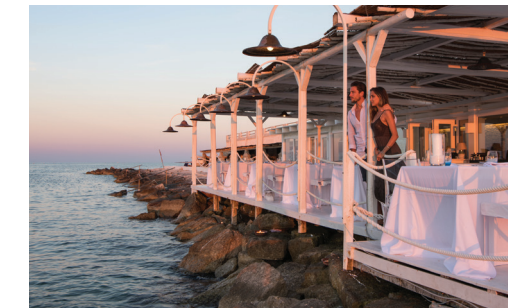

Executive Chef Vito Casulli

▲ The sexiness of La Peschiera seamlessly carries over to its cuisine and that is where chef Vito Casulli reigns supreme. Vito began working in his father's restaurant when he was 11, making typical Apulian cuisine. As a boy he learned to love the food of his homeland but it was not until he worked alongside master chef Stefano D'Onghia that Vito began to experiment and form his own style of cuisine.

His cuisine is innovative, creative but inextricably linked to the Apulian tradition, a tradition that he personalizes with high quality raw materials and one that has become a trademark of La Peschiera.

MDV

"I can't thank you enough for my site inspection of your gorgeous property. From the moment I arrived at La Peschiera and walked down your entry way covered in flowers, I knew your hotel was something special. Then, I saw your ocean front rooms – they took my breath away. The quaintness and privacy of your property is like no other. Your property is spectacular!"
