

Parilio Hotel ★★★★★

For those looking to fully embrace the slow-paced way of living of the Greek islands, consider Paros and the typical Cycladic light simplicity of Parilio, overlooking stunning Naoussa Bay in the north of the island. The 33-suite resort is the perfect retreat close to the island's most famous beach, Kolymithres, and the jewel town of Naoussa with its vibrant nightlife. Escape the demands of everyday living and indulge your inner spirit for a vacation experience to be savored!

Kalia Konstantinidou and Antonis Eliopoulos

▲ The great Greek poet and Nobel laureate, George Seferis declared Paros – with its gently rolling landscape, pristine beaches, mesmerizing villages and ancient treasures, to be the loveliest of all the Greek islands. This is where Kalia and Antonis decided to make their next statement. After conquering Santorini with three stunning luxury properties, this dynamic couple set their eyes on Paros and they created magic.

“Parilio is leading the way for luxury boutique hotels on Paros. Its clean Cycladic architecture paired with modern luxurious touches with an atmosphere that oozes wellness and serenity, creates an idyllic environment for guests to relax. Its suites are spacious, the staff are welcoming and friendly, and my gastronomic experience at Mr. E's was my favorite meal of my trip.” A.J. – WAC Travel
