

Royal Hotel Sanremo ★★★★★

Located on Italy's 'Flower Riviera' just 30 minutes from Monte Carlo, The Royal Hotel Sanremo has been hosting discerning guests since the late 19th century. Its beachfront location, accessibility to nearby medieval villages and a thriving local culinary tradition make it a perfect base to relax and explore both the French Riviera and charming Liguria, one of Italy's most undiscovered regions.

Marco Sarlo and Marianne Dorsch

◀ Have you met Marco Sarlo and Marianne Dorsch of the Royal Hotel Sanremo? If you have you would not forget them. Marco is the quintessentially charming Italian general manager and Marianne, his wife, is the energetic and very efficient director of sales and marketing. Together they make a perfect team. Marco, friendly, a world traveler, an avid golfer and a passionate chef has managed some of the best hotels in Italy. Marianne crisscrosses the world with seamless ease building the resort's clientele.

I've traveled with Marco and Marianne several times and I have grown to appreciate their respect for the craft of hotel keeping and their solidarity with the travel community. As travel advisors that have visited the Royal Hotel Sanremo with Waterstone will attest, Marco and Marianne are the perfect hosts. They effortlessly exhibit the hospitality that comes natural to them. In their smiles you are able to see that they genuinely appreciate your visit and your business.

You can trust your clients to Marco and Marianne without a care, they are Mr. and Mrs. Sanremo. They know everyone in the "Riviera of Flowers" and can open all the right doors.
