

The First Roma Dolce ★★★★★

Marco Marroni

The First Roma Dolce perfectly blends the elegant design of a 19th century private home with the charm of the now pedestrianized Via del Corso, one of the main shopping streets in Rome. A boutique hotel with a warm residential atmosphere and bespoke 5-star service, sets the stage for the perfect stay. The hotel's unique feature is its patisserie restaurant Velo, serving English afternoon tea with an Italian twist. The hotel as the new hip address in town provides the same award-winning hospitality as its sister property, The First Roma Arte just a short walk away.

◀ Tough to improve on perfection. The First Roma Dolce opened in 2019 to huge success and the formula has been widely accepted. Above the chocolates, pastries and sweets... above the very sexy décor...really it's been all about the service. And the service is indeed sublime. Yet Marco is not satisfied, watching carefully the staff interaction with guests, observing how the copious breakfast (a real wow) is accepted by the international clientele at the hotel. A tweak here, an adjustment there, Marco's eye for detail will elevate this amazing hotel to greater heights.

“ My husband and I had a wonderful stay at The First Roma Dolce. Our suite was lovely, the staff was very personable, and the food great! It felt like home when the doorman said “welcome home”! We had a wonderful dinner on our last night at the rooftop at The First Roma Arte! I'm already looking forward to my next visit to Rome! ”
