

SINA Centurion Palace ★★★★★

Located in the quiet Dorsoduro residential area of Venice between the Guggenheim and Punta della Dogana museums, the SINA Centurion Palace sits directly on the Grand Canal opposite San Marco. Next door to the famous church of Santa Maria della Salute, the hotel blends the antiquity of its former 'Palazzetto' with vibrant modern furnishings, and is an oasis of calm, just a short walk or gondola ride to the city's many attractions.

Paolo Morra

▲ Paolo Morra has worked in Venetian luxury hotels practically his entire professional life. Yet he is not originally from Venice. Paolo is a proud Neapolitan and with that comes his easy laugh, his great humor, his gentle ways and his love of life, which he brings to his beloved SINA Centurion Palace.

Paolo is omnipresent at the SINA Centurion Palace. He is an old school general manager who treasures customer contact above all. As guests arrive by water taxi at the private pier of the hotel, Paolo is never far away, impeccably attired, extending his hand and welcoming guests as though they were arriving at their very own Palazzo on the Grand Canal.

Paolo is a great gentleman and he is valued by all of us at Waterstone. Working with Paolo and his team provide us all with great confidence.

MDV

Services, Experiences and Highlights:

- 50 rooms with truly exceptional views of Venice's skyline
- Quiet residential location, yet centrally located
- Features an intimate and charming courtyard where guests can relax after a day of sightseeing
- Antinoo's Lounge & Restaurant, with lovely terrace seating on the Grand Canal
- Private pier on the Grand Canal for easy water taxi transfers
- Private seasonal shuttle taking guests to San Marco
- Member of SINA Hotels, Small Luxury Hotels of the World, American Express Hotel Collection, Travel Leaders Select and Condé Nast Johansens

"My stay at SINA Centurion Palace was amazing and I loved my large junior suite overlooking the canal! I am so happy to have stayed at such a fantastic property and its residential location away from the masses I think is great."

J.T. - Jetset World Travel

